

PROFILE

JOHN CORRIGAN

MBA, B.Bus, Grad Dip (Finance), Grad Dip (Marketing), FCPA

John Corrigan is managing director of Moorestone, a specialist financial management resources and consulting services firm that assists the finance function in delivering improved performance and added value to the business.

His work experience includes a number of years in financial and management consulting. Prior to consulting he worked in various financial management roles (from cost accountant to finance director), both nationally and internationally, for several multi-national corporates.

John was a pioneer of The Balanced Scorecard and other performance management methodologies in Australia. His current professional focus is on Business Performance Management frameworks (including KPIs and other measurement systems), budgeting / forecasting systems and reporting and communication strategies.

John was technical advisor to CPA Australia's Centre of Excellence and is a regular conference speaker and business writer on contemporary financial and management issues having written in excess of 100 articles on business and management issues covering professional and national papers and magazines.

His professional activities include being a divisional councillor for CPA Australia - NSW division and an adjudicator for the Australian Reporting Awards. He is also the convenor of the CPA-CIMA management accounting discussion group. In addition, he is currently drafting white papers on 'Budgeting and Innovation' and 'Effective Reporting Strategies'